

Southern Adventist University's Victim's Rights

When a student or employee reports to the institution that the student or employee has been a victim of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking, whether the offense occurred on or off campus, the institution will provide the student or employee the following rights and options. The institution must make such accommodations or provide such protective measures if the victim requests them and if they are reasonably available, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to campus safety or local law enforcement.

- Right to notify external law enforcement authorities and to have Southern assist you at any time.
- Right to not notify external law enforcement authorities or other federal or state agencies.
- Right to request changes to:
  - academic situations
  - living situations
  - transportation situations
  - working situations
- Right to request assistance with
  - protective measures such as restraining order, no-contact order, safety escorts or other assistance
  - obtaining counseling services within the institution and in the community
  - obtaining health services within the institution and in the community
  - obtaining mental health services within the institution and in the community
  - obtaining victim advocacy services within the institution and in the community
  - obtaining legal assistance within the institution
  - obtaining visa and immigration services within the institution
  - obtaining financial aid services within the institution

To request any of the above rights during the intake/report please let the Campus Safety Officer know.

To request any of the above rights after intake/report please contact:

Andrew Myaing/ Title IX Coordinator

Wright Hall 2nd Floor Suite 2065

amyaing@southern.edu / 423-236-2266

For assistance with contacting the Title IX Coordinator you may contact Campus Safety.