

Student Name: _____

Class/Paper: _____

Grade Rubric: Presentation

Dimension	Not yet	Beginning	Adequate	Excellent
Topic Definition	The topic definition does not exist.	The topic definition is unclear.	The topic is adequately defined.	The topic is well defined.
Organization	Organization is entirely random.	Some organization is found, but placement of content is often random.	Organization is clear, but some content may not follow this organization.	The organization of the content is abundantly clear throughout the presentation.
Scholarship	No scholarship: The presentation adds little or no value beyond an internet search to the target audience.	Limited scholarship: The topic includes potential; however, the presentation adds only minimal value to the target audience.	Acceptable scholarship: The presentation's depth is sufficient, and it adds adequate value to the target audience.	Excellent scholarship: The presentation's depth is appropriate, and it adds significant value to the target audience.
Visual Material	Visual aids are unclear, distracting, or inappropriate for the content.	Visual aids are unclear, incomplete, or insufficient for the content.	Visual aids are clear and adequately support the content.	Visual aids are clear, appealing, and enhance the content.
Poise	Presentation manner seriously distracts from the content.	Presentation manner distracts from the content (e.g., lack of eye contact, halted speech, distracting quirks).	Presentation manner is appropriate for the content and target audience.	Presenter is well poised, and the presentation manner is professional.
Interaction	Presenter cannot answer relevant questions.	Presenter struggles to answer relevant questions.	Presenter appropriately answers relevant questions.	Presenter invites and expertly answers relevant questions.
Clarity	Little or no content is expressed clearly and effectively to the target audience.	Some content is expressed clearly and effectively to the target audience.	Most content is expressed clearly and effectively to the target audience.	Content is expressed clearly and effectively to the target audience.
Time Management	Disregards time constraints.	Within 40% of the time constraints	Within 20% of the time constraints.	Fully meets time constraints.

Comments:

---

---

---

---