About the Clinicians...

Laurie Redmer Cadwallader, a violinist, violist, and vocalist, holds a Bachelor of Music degree in Music Education from Atlantic Union College and Master of Music degrees in both Viola Performance and Conducting from New England Conservatory of Music. She has conducted the Young People's Philharmonia, the Salisbury Singers, Symphony Pro Musica, and the Maryland Consort of Instruments. She has been on the faculties of Columbia Union College, Greater Boston Academy, New England Conservatory Extension Division, South Lancaster Academy, the Walnut Hill School for the Arts, and the Thayer Conservatory of Music.

Mrs. Cadwallader has performed with the Boston Philharmonic, Symphony Pro Musica, the Salisbury Lyric Opera, the Salisbury Chamber Orchestra, the Huntsville Symphony Orchestra, and the Chattanooga Symphony Orchestra. Her performance experience includes concert tours of Europe, Australia, Asia, Russia, and the United States as a violinist, violist, vocalist, and conductor. She is frequently a clinician at music festivals around the United States.

Prior to her current appointment, Mrs. Cadwallader was assistant professor of music at Columbia Union College, and the director of choirs at Takoma Academy from 1998 to 2000. She was head of the music education program, taught viola, violin, and conducting, and administered the Preparatory School of Music at Columbia Union College. She also conducted the Sligo Seventh-day Adventist Church choir.

Mrs. Cadwallader joined the faculty of Southern Adventist University as associate professor of music in 2000. In addition to her responsibilities as conductor of the SAU Symphony Orchestra, Voices of Southern and I Cantori, she teaches viola, violin, string methods, elementary and secondary music methods, and conducting.

Ken Parsons is Associate Professor of Music at Southern Adventist University. Mr. Parsons conducts the Wind Symphony, the Jazz Ensemble, the Brass Choir, and serves as Assistant to the Dean of the School of Music. He also teaches various music education courses as well as applied trumpet.

Before coming to Southern in 2000, Mr. Parsons taught at Forest Lake Academy in Apopka, Florida from 1986 to 2000. He has also taught at Rollins College in Winter Park, Florida, and Redlands Junior Academy in Redlands, California.

Mr. Parsons holds bachelor's degrees in music education and theology from Walla Walla College, and a M.Mus. degree in Brass Performance from the University of Oregon. He has performed extensively on trumpet in various orchestral, wind and jazz ensembles and as a soloist in the Northwest, Southern California, Florida, and Tennessee.

A Special Thank You...

The success of events such as this is due, to a great extent, to the energy and commitment of the parents, academy music teachers and sponsors who support our honors festivals on an annual basis. The School of Music at Southern Adventist University wishes to express its heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation to those who have worked so hard to make the 2026 Honors Music Festival a success.
