SOUTHERN
ADVENTIST UNIVERSITY

Power for Mind & Soul

P R E S I D E N T ' S M E S S A G E T O G R A D U A T E S

Dear Graduates,

On behalf of the entire Southern Adventist University family, congratulations on this remarkable milestone! As you leave Southern, I encourage you to love life. That means finding joy in the simple moments, in your relationship with God, in your relationships with others, and while pursuing your God-given passions. Loving life requires a positive outlook and a heart filled with gratitude.

Loving life to the fullest sometimes takes courage. It may move you out of your comfort zone and cause you to encounter uncertainty even while you are pursuing your dreams. It will involve taking risks, learning from failures, and always moving forward.

Loving life becomes most meaningful when you embrace God's specific calling for you as you serve those around you. In 1 Peter 4:10 the Bible says, "Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others." Through God's gift, you will experience life's joys most fully when you seize the opportunities to serve others with compassion.

I pray that Southern has set you on a foundation for loving life. As you depart our campus, let the Bible be your guide—love God, love others, love life, live boldly, cherish moments, nurture passions, embrace challenges, and dare to pursue dreams. God has promised to be with you wherever you go. We look forward to watching what He will do in your life!

Blessings,

Ken Shaw, EdD
President

STUDENT LEARNING GOALS

Students of Southern Adventist University will:

- Spiritual Development
grow in a vibrant relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ while integrating into their lives Bible-based beliefs and values as understood by the Seventh-day Adventist Church.
- Intellectual Development
develop a commitment to lifelong learning and demonstrate a mastery of the cognitive skills of critical reasoning, independent thinking, reflective judgment, communication, and creativity needed to confront the issues, ideas, and values of historical and contemporary civilization.
- Occupational Development
exhibit excellence and moral leadership in their chosen fields of study and/or professions.
- Individual and Social Development
develop socio-emotional maturity that will enable them to be effective leaders and contributing members of their churches, families, groups, and communities in a global society.
- Physical Development
take responsibility for their own well-being through a health-promoting lifestyle.

MISSION STATEMENT

Grounded in Jesus Christ and dedicated to the beliefs of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, we equip students to embrace biblical truth, embody academic and professional excellence, and pursue Spirit-filled lives of service.

THE VISION

Southern Adventist University's vision is to:

- Model the love of Jesus in every interaction.
- Invite each student into a saving relationship with Jesus.
- Inspire each student to engage with God's Church and the world through service and witness.
- Provide each student with an exceptional learning experience that equips them to thrive in a fluid, global job market.

CORE VALUES

As Southern Adventist University employees, we:

- Embrace the Seventh-day Adventist Church's Worldview and Fundamental Beliefs
- Love Others as God Loves Them
- Act with Integrity
- Live Prayerfully
- Serve Others Generously
- Follow God's Calling
- Pursue Excellence
- Exercise Responsible Stewardship
- Offer an Exceptional, Wholistic Learning Experience

THE MACE

The mace is a traditional symbol used to communicate and designate authority. The Southern Adventist University mace was crafted in 1986 by John Durichek, a Southern alum. Southern's mace represents its heritage and raison d'être (reason for existence). The base is of pine from Jones Hall, built in 1917 and razed in 1985. The main staff is walnut. The seven rings represent completeness. The four-sided ebony segment is seen as Southern's underlying educational philosophy—balanced mental, spiritual, physical, and social development for each student. The brass flames represent the Holy Spirit.

Bearing the mace is the grand marshal, Kristie Wilder, chair of the University Senate and professor in the School of Social Work. Her regalia is evergreen, the university's traditional color.
