Build a friendship with an elementary school child.
The Partnering for Eternity (PFE) Program creates opportunities for mentors to share hobbies and life skills with the next generation. The child benefits from the intergenerational friendship, plus receives a scholarship for Christian education.

“Every kid is one caring adult away from being a success story.” —John Sharp
MENTORS NEEDED

As a PFE mentor, you share your life experiences, skills, and hobbies with a child and parent when they visit you each week to build a positive intergenerational connection. The child receives a tuition scholarship from the PFE Program to help afford Christian education.

Mentors need to:

- Exhibit willingness to mentor one elementary-aged student
- Be open to extra help and companionship
- Be present for consistent and intentional visits with one child for one hour every week
- Serve as a role model and caring adult during visits
- Encourage the student to work hard in school
- Provide a safe environment for both student and parent

SIGN UP AS A MENTOR

- Contact your local school to request an application.
- The school will pair you with a student. (Mentors will not be paired with relatives.)
- Schedule visits for one hour each week to build an intergenerational friendship.
