The Partnering for Eternity (PFE) Program pairs elementary school children with mentors to build intergenerational friendships and provide tuition assistance.

“Every kid is one caring adult away from being a success story.”—John Sharp
The Partnering for Eternity (PFE) Program offers grants for the student’s Christian education, providing $25 per visit. Students, along with a parent, visit a mentor weekly to build a relationship. Students help around the house and complete fun projects with their mentor.

Student Participant Requirements
- Commitment to visit a mentor once a week for one hour
- Parent attendance with the student at each visit
- Desire to serve, grow, and build a friendship with a mentor
- Willingness to learn from a mentorship

How Does It Work?
- Choose a mentor such as a church member, neighbor, or family friend (no relatives).
- Visit this mentor for one hour, once a week.
- Submit reflections about the visit online.
- Receive tuition grant of $25 for each one-hour visit. The scholarship may cover up to a quarter of the student’s tuition when visits are faithfully completed.

Contact Your School’s PFE Coordinator.
- Attend orientation provided by your school.
- Complete online application at southern.edu/pfe. (Participation is limited to two siblings per family.)
- Once your student’s application is approved, begin visits to build intergenerational friendship.
