Explore the Item Record

Click on the title of the item of interest to access additional information, images, full-text options, and tools.

The screenshot shows a digital library item record. At the top, it lists the author as Sara Gabal (Nov 2016), the journal as 'Journal of International Women's Studies (Vol. 16, Issue 1)' from Bridgewater State College, and the document type as a report (4,410 words, 1976 Lexia Measure). Below this are icons for accessibility (A, A+, A-) and a speaker icon. The abstract discusses zines as self-published, non-commercial magazines that tackle social issues. The 'More Like This' section lists related articles, and the 'Related Subjects' section includes 'Alternative press publications', 'Authorship', and 'Identity'. A 'View All Related Articles' button is also visible.

- View important information like authors, publisher, publication, and more on the items record.
- In many cases, the location of the authors is helpful in figuring out where the research took place.
- The abstract is the summary paragraph. Reading this will give you a good indication on the item's topic.
- Pay attention to the keywords used in the resources you find most helpful.
- Use the related subjects to locate additional materials on your topic. Clicking on the subject term link will begin a new search.
- Need additional sources? Explore a relevant item's bibliography to find additional materials on your topic.

Finding the Full Text

Click on the title of the item of interest.

Use the icons to save the full text to Google Drive, OneDrive, email it to yourself, or download by clicking on the appropriate icon.

The 'Library Links' section contains five circular icons: Google Drive, OneDrive, an envelope (email), a download arrow, and a printer. Below these icons is a button labeled 'Find It' with a magnifying glass icon.

- Download the PDF and save to your computer or bibliographic management tool.
- Full-text not available? We will get it for you for free through interlibrary loan. Click "Find It" to go to the interlibrary loan request page.

Tools

The 'Tools' section features five icons in a row: 'Cite' (document with checkmark), 'Send To...' (paper plane), 'Download' (download arrow), 'Print' (printer), and 'Get Link' (chain link).

- Select cite to view the citation of the item in your chosen format. These citations should always be double-checked for accuracy.
- Download and print the full text.
- To save a link to the article, make sure to use the "Get Link" permalink icon.

The accessibility tools section contains four circular icons: a text-to-speech icon (A with a speaker), a font size decrease icon (A-), a font size increase icon (A+), and a display options icon (Aa).

- Translate the article in another language
- Increase and decrease the font size.
- Change the display options by selecting "Aa".
- Select the speaker icon to listen to the article.
