Administrative Information

Provenance: McKee Library acquired the Thomas Memorial Collection in 1973 from Dr. Vernon Thomas, a physician from Texas. The Thomas Memorial Collection is comprised of Civil War related materials collected by Dr. Russell Slater of La Salle, Illinois, and Abraham Lincoln related materials collected by John W. Fling, Jr., a lawyer from Wyoming, Illinois. Dr. Thomas purchased these materials from their respective collectors. Included in the Thomas Memorial Collection are newspapers, periodicals, photographs by official government photographer Mathew Brady, portraits of Abraham Lincoln, posters, and correspondence.

Biography

The Thomas Memorial Collection exists today as a result of three major contributors. Dr. Vernon L. Thomas, the namesake of the collection, along with Dr. Russell C. Slater and John W. Fling, Jr., each contributed books, photos, periodicals, and other memorabilia concerning Abraham Lincoln and the Civil War. The original collector of the Civil War material was Dr. Russell Slater of La Salle, Illinois. John W. Fling, Jr., a lawyer of Wyoming, Illinois, spent a lifetime gathering the Abraham Lincoln material. Dr. Thomas acquired both of these collections and, in 1973, donated it in its entirety to McKee Library.

Dr. Thomas was born in Oklahoma on April 9, 1918. He attended Southwestern Junior College (now Southwestern Adventist University) in Keene, Texas, and Union College in Lincoln, Nebraska. He received his medical degree from Loma Linda University School of Medicine in Loma Linda, California. Dr. Thomas then served at a mission hospital in Nicaragua. Upon returning to the United States, he opened a clinic in Grandview, Texas. A serious bibliophile, Dr. Thomas had collected books since 1951, accumulating a personal library of over 30,000 volumes, in addition to the Lincoln and Civil War material. Dr. Thomas passed away on November 24, 2011.
